<sup>12</sup>Wootten's substitute, as printed in the Tri-Weekly Telegraph (Houston), November 20, 1863, was:

"Whereas, from a recent order of Major Gen. J. B. Magruder, we are advised that he has discovered the presence in our midst of disloyal citizens:

Resolved 1st, By the Senate, (the House concurring,) that we accord to Major Gen. Magruder, for his vigilance in detecting, and promptness in exposing the civil minded citizens, the plaudit of "Well done thou good and faithful servant," and bid him God speed in the good work.

Resolved 2nd, That Maj. Gen. Magruder will find a ready preliminary solution to any difficulties that may arise in disposing of parties so arrested, in the sixteenth section of the bill of rights, which declares that "No citizen of this State shall be deprived of life, liberty, property, or privileges, outlawed or exiled, or in any manner disfranchised, except by due course of the law of the land."

Resolved 3rd, That the Governor be requested to see that the rights of all citizens of Texas be adjudicated upon the principles formed in the organic law.
